

Peace & Justice Song Suggestions * for Classrooms, Peace Concerts and Remembrance Day Assemblies:

All Through The Night – Trad. Welsh lullaby, Eng. w. Sir Harold Boulton

Better Times Will Come - Diana Jones, adapted by B. Hood

Blowin' In The Wind - Bob Dylan

Bright Morning Stars - Traditional Spiritual with adaptations

Day Is Done - Peter Yarrow

Dona Dona - Yiddish w. Aaron Zeitlin, Eng. w. Keveess & Schwartz

I Didn't Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier – Alfred Bryan & Al Plantadosi

If I Had A Hammer – Lee Hays & Pete Seeger

Imagine - John Lennon

Last Night I Had The Strangest Dream - Ed McCurdy

Let It Be - Lennon/McCartney

Let there be Peace on Earth – Sy Miller & Jill Jackson

May There Always Be Sunshine – orig Russian w. L. Oshanin, Eng. w. T. Botting

None Of Us Are Free - Barry Mann/Cynthia Weill/ Brenda Russell

O Great Earth - Linnea Good

One Day - Matisyahu

One Tin Soldier – Dennis Lambert & Brian Potter

Peace Call - Woody Guthrie

Peace is the Feeling - Linda Allen

Song of Peace (Finlandia) – w. Lloyd Stone m. Jean Sibelius

Somos el Barco – Lorre Wyatt

Study War No More - Traditional Black Spiritual

There's A Little Wheel A-turning - Traditional

This Little Light of Mine – Harry Dixon Loes, with additions by others

True Cost of Peace - Bill Hood

Universal Soldier – Buffy Sainte-Marie

Vine & Fig Tree – lyrics from the Bible, arranged as a round

We Are Here - Maura Volante

We Shall Overcome - an adaptation inspired by African-American gospel singing

We've Got the Whole World - based on a traditional American Christian spiritual

(* We hope to add more songs plus links to lyrics and videos later through our website, please submit your suggestions)